

Rules on keeping pets at Best Western Hotel Jurata

Best Western Hotel Jurata welcomes guests with cats as well as small- and medium-size dogs, provided that information on arrival with such pets is communicated to the hotel in advance at the reservation stage. Guests travelling with their pets are offered rooms located near staircases with direct exits from the building.

General rules

- Each pet shall have valid veterinary tests and shall be vaccinated as required by the applicable law, also against rabies, and shall be in a generally good health.
- Dogs kept by our guests shall not disturb other hotel guests, who may not be comfortable with their presence.
- Each dog shall be walked on a leash at all times when not kept in the room; this also applies to the hotel premises.
- Only the side staircases as well as the side gate shall be used for walking dogs outside.
- Pets shall not be allowed in swimming pool area, in steam rooms, in beauty shops or in the restaurant area. The above ban shall not apply to guide dogs.

Responsibility

- Owners and keepers shall be exclusively responsible for their pets.
- Upon checking-out, the Hotel shall inspect the room in terms of possible damage done by the pet.
- Jurata Hotel shall have the right to charge its guests for any material damage caused by their pets.

Leaving a pet unattended in your room

- A pet may be left unattended in your room, provided it is not noisy and does not soil the room.
- While you are absent, please put a relevant sign informing about the pet being left in the room on the outside door handle.
- When leaving a pet in your room unattended, please report this to the front desk staff.

Tidiness

- Please clean after your pet in the hotel, at the hotel premises and in the adjacent area. Waste bags are available for purchase at the front desk.
- If you are travelling with a pet particularly prone to shedding or if it soils furniture in any other manner, please provide appropriate mats to protect chairs, sofas and beds.
- Please notify the front desk of the most convenient time for refreshing/cleaning your room on each day of your stay.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call the front desk at 58 675 21 40.

Pets stay at our hotel against an additional fee. Ask the front desk staff about the current fee rate.
